Do you want to train to be an Educational Psychologist?

Come along to the Cardiff University Open Evening and find out how you can achieve your ambition!

When and Where:

South Wales
Thursday 9th November 5pm-6.30pm, Cardiff University.
Place: Tower Building, (12th Floor), Park Place, Cardiff CF10 3AT

North Wales
Thursday 9th November 4.30—6pm, Denbighshire
Place: County Hall, Ruthin, Denbighshire LL15 1YN

West Wales
Wednesday 15th November 5-6.30pm, Carmarthen
Place, Building 2, St David’s Park, Job Well Road, Carmarthen, SA31 3HB

What is covered?

- Details about the programme
- Information about the selection process
- A chance to talk to the tutors and current trainees

Everything we can tell you that could be important for you making the decision to apply to Cardiff.

Why Cardiff?

- Placements in three different educational psychology services
- Cardiff University has been rated as the best University in Wales
- There is a progressive sense of research activities across the three years.
- The only programme that is dedicated to preparing Educational Psychologists for practice in Wales as well as England

Current entry requirements

Applicants must have:

- A First Degree in Psychology or a Psychology based Masters

AND

- A minimum of one year’s experience of working with children and young people (0-19).

Applications from Welsh Speakers are particularly welcome

School of Psychology, Cardiff University
70 Park Place, Cardiff, CF10 3AT

Further information can be found here: http://psych.cf.ac.uk/degreeprogrammes/postgraduate/dedpsy/