Terms and conditions for the Cardiff School of Psychology International Scholarship.

1. Applicants are eligible for the Scholarships if they are full-fee paying students of international fee status (EU not included) who enrol in the first year of the Psychology or Psychology with Professional Placement degree.

2. Successful applicants will receive £1000 deduction from their first year fees and a £2000 deduction from their second and final year fees.

3. Continuation of the award in the second and final year is contingent on obtaining a 60% end-of-year average in Years 1 and 2.

4. Successful applicants must (i) obtain their academic entrance offer (ii) complete the application form to a satisfactory standard.

5. For the purposes of these scholarships, a “satisfactory standard” is determined by the School of Psychology Admissions Tutors.

6. Students who are wholly state-funded or in receipt of other scholarships or funds which wholly or partly cover their tuition fees are not eligible for the scholarship.

7. The scholarships are subject to the student satisfying the examiners at the end of the academic year and proceeding to the next level of study.

8. Conditions are subject to change without notice. Awards are made to candidates who meet the terms and conditions current at the time of application.
